CATEGORY A: What is my name?

Each species of Sharks in Aquaria KLCC are unique in their own way! Spot the Sharks according to its special fact as clue.

Sand Tiger shark

I am a shark named after a plant.

Tawny Nurse shark

We have a hint of white on the tips of our fins!

Blacktip Reef shark

I can be easily identified by my colour pattern and long wavy tail fin.

Bamboo shark

We have a pair of barbels in front of our nostrils to help us look for food.

Zebra shark

I am a medium sized shark with a distinctive black coloration on my fins.

Whitetip Reef shark

I often swim with my mouth open, exposing rows of sharp teeth.

CATEGORY B: Whose fins are these?

Head on to KLCC Park and Spot the Sharks! Match the Shark Fins below to the correct species. You can find the clues at the KLCC Pool.

Whale shark

Giant Shovelnose ray

Bamboo shark

Blacktip Reef shark

Tawny Nurse shark

Shortfin Mako shark

Sand Tiger shark
